Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. Our group had an amazing weekend at Challenge Youth Conference in Dallas. We are already planning for next year's conference. CYC is uplifting and is a wonderful way to grow spiritually, not to mention a fun weekend with the youth group. If you haven't attended in the past, we hope you will consider joining us next year. We have sent out a survey regarding camp for this summer. We hope you will fill it out so we can have an idea of how many we may take. Filling out the survey is not a commitment to camp by any means. We are planning to attend Camp Red Oak Springs in Newton. The Ladies Brunch is going to be held February 4th with a prep night on February 3rd. Any young ladies who would like to be a part of the event should talk with Alison. ## WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

READ YOUR POLICY

People often accuse insurance companies of not honoring their policies. Having spent a few years in that business I know the charge is seldom true. State and federal regulations force insurance companies to honor their policies; the problem is that most people have never read their copy. What keeps people from reading their policy? Sometimes people trust their agent so they figure there is no reason to question his word. This is sad for there are a few "bad apples" in every business. Sometimes people claim the policies are too difficult to understand. I believe most people who say this have never attempted to read their policy anyway. I have also noticed that many people look at religion the same way they would a life insurance policy. They put blind trust in a smooth talking salesman (some preacher) and hope that he knows what he is doing. They never read their policy (the Bible) for they imagine that they couldn't understand it anyway. It is much easier to trust a priest or preacher than to read and study for themselves. The Bible can be understood. It is given to us in this life and will be opened before us at the judgement (Rev. 20:12). What you know about God's word, and what you do about it, will determine what He says to you in the final day. Let us imitate the noble Bereans who "searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so" read Acts 17:11. ADAPTED

Monday Night For The Master Resumes A Week From Tomorrow Night Plan To Be Here.

From Dan's desk:

The Give Me The Bible Conference will take place in the activity building this coming Saturday. There is no charge for the meal and you will enjoy a wonderful day. Come meet the T.V. preachers and enjoy the two productions of "Give Me The Bible". It seems so long since we had Monday Night For The Master. That program will resume again a week from tomorrow night in the activity building. We are so grateful for all those who come and help with this program. There is always something that needs to be done and much is accomplished when Christians work together in such efforts. We have started a new study in Sunday morning Bible Class in the Church auditorium. The theme is, "RAISING THE BAR". Everyone of us can do better. These lessons are designed to challenge you to greater heights spiritually. We all need them. Please plan to join us next Sunday as we reason together from God's Word. The way we grow spiritually is through reading God's Word and activating it in our lives. We appreciate those men on the T.V. Program that give so much of their time and effort to present the gospel each week on the T.V. stations in state and out of state. We are literally reaching millions with the program through Facebook as well as Youtube. We are fulfilling the great commission. See you tonight DAN

"WE ARE SECURE IN CHRIST"

Nothing make us feel any more secure than the instructions of God. His inspired word, ought to provide us with a sense of security and well-being. Our Father in heaven cares enough for us to set boundaries. When we follow His teaching, good feelings are produced. When we read Matthew chapter 6 we realize that if God cares for the birds of the heavens, then surely he cares for all of us. Many have made the mistake of turning things around by insisting that one must feel right in order to do right. But, actually, there are many occasions in which we must do what is right and trust that the feeling will follow. We are created in the image of God. He loves us so much that He gave us the gift of His Beloved Son so that we might entertain a strong hope of living forever in His glorious presence. Such thoughts as these will influence the way we feel about ourselves and those around us. A sense of His great love frees us from self-hate and stirs within a genuine sense of good will toward others. You can smile and you can feel secure in knowing that God cares. "Cast your cares on Him for He careth for you."
