

Good morning and welcome to services. Last week's chili cook-off was a great success! We appreciate all the young people serving chili, decorating and helping with the behind the scenes. We'd like to offer a special thank you to Danna Collins for all her help in pulling off the event! Our congregation is a generous one and we are so encouraged by all the support. Thank you, Crockett Road family! Congratulations to Lisa Lambert for her first place win! Be sure and ask her for her special recipe! We are gearing up for Lads to Leaders! This week we will be working on testing for Bible Bowl and Pearls. We also have a lot of work to do go get our puppet show and scrapbook ready for convention, but know it will be great! Be sure and grab a March calendar from the youth board to stay up to date on all the happenings! Hope everyone has a great week! DOUG

DON'T FORGET

Late For Class

A little girl, dresses in her "Sunday best" was late and running to her Sunday school class.

As she ran, she prayed, "Dear God, please don't let me be late. Dear God, please don't let me be late." Then she fell.

She got up, dusted her self off and saw that her dress was now dirty and had a little tear. She started running again, still praying, "Dear God, please don't let me be late." But this time she added, "But please don't push me, either!"

From Dan's desk:

Thanks for coming this morning. It is great to see you all today. A disaster can reveal what is precious to us. I heard about a man who fell down a flight of sharp stone stairs. He lay sprawled at the bottom, groaning and moaning: "Oh no! Oh no! It's broken! It's broken! I broke my "smart-phone" Something is precious to us because of its high intrinsic value or because it means much to us personally. These two are not the same, since we often cherish something that has no intrinsic value. It might have extrinsic value to us, or it might be much less valuable than we think it is. We may not cherish material things. On judgment day, precious stones will be worthless. Love of money leads to perdition. We ought to cherish spiritual things. Wisdom and faith are more precious than gold. Most precious are the gracious gifts of God. His gifts in nature, His mercy and His thoughts are precious. He has given us exceedingly precious promises. We have been redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. He is the precious cornerstone in God's spiritual house. God's kingdom is worth more than any earthly interest. Precious to the Lord are a gentle spirit, and the final victory of His saints. Rev. 2:10 We are grateful for your faithfulness. We thanks each of you for coming to the "Chili-Cook-off" and the Monday Night For The Master event last Monday. The winners are listed elsewhere in the bulletin. It was a great day. We are happy for SAMIE SAMMONS who asked for prayer and placed membership last Sunday. We welcomed him into our midst. See you tonight at 6 P.M. DAN

WHY SHOULD I BE BAPTIZED?

Many people who believe in Christ and are sorry for their sins, put off being baptized, even though they know it is a command of the Lord. In the book of Acts, which contains many examples of conversion, people were baptized immediately, as soon as they believed in Jesus. They did this because they knew that baptism is for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38) and to become a member of the body of Christ: "For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body" (1 Corinthians 12:13). If you believe that Jesus is the Son of God and if you want to dedicate your life to God and be saved, "Why are you waiting?" "Arise and be baptized!" The word "baptize" is a transliteration of the Greek word "BAPTIZO" which means to immerse or dip. Churches that sprinkle or pour a little water on people are not following the Bible. What they do is not baptism, it is not immersion. In reality they do not baptize people at all. Someone who has only received "sprinkling" or "pouring" has not obeyed the command to be "baptized". The substance, water, has no magic power to wash away sins. In the act of baptism however is where we reach the blood of Jesus. Rom. 6. Baptism is not a meritorious work, but a gift of God that we receive, a "washing of regeneration" that cleanses us and saves us by the blood of Christ: "And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord!" Amen DAN
