Please mark your calendar for next Sunday night. We will be having a devotional following evening services and we ask all parents to join us as we plan our summer activities.

Have a great week!

OUR SYMPATHY

Our sympathy is extended to Kenneth and Ann Holland in the recent death of their great granddaughter-in-law EMILY DAVIS. A memorial service is being planned soon. They are still pending.

CONVERSATION:

Do we talk much about Jesus, the Bible, the church, etc., other than when we're together at the meeting house? Some can name every player on their favorite sports team, but can't name the twelve apostles! They know the numbers on the jerseys, but can't remember where key Bible passages are found. They can hold a lively conversation about the last game, what went right, and what went wrong; but they can't show a lost soul the Bible passages that teach how to be saved. What is important to you? Whatever you talk about.

We talk about things that interest or concern us. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks" (Matthew 12:34). It is next to impossible to hold a conversation on a topic that doesn't interest you, or about which you know very little. We will make the effort to become informed in areas that are important to us.

Time, money, and conversation are three criteria by which we can discern what things are truly important to us. Let's examine ourselves honestly, and then make whatever changes are needed.

Even though we do not know the day or month that Jesus arose from the dead, we KNOW HE DID. His resurrection proves to us that some day we will all be raised. John 5:28-29. May we live in view of our own resurrection.

THE WORLD IS AGAIN RE-MINDED OF THE ONE WHO ROSE FROM THE GRAVE.

From Dan's desk:

The Easter story is the greatest message conveyed in Holy Scripture. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and Life and though a man die, he shall live again." What a promise that we all cling to as God's Children. We are thankful for your coming to be with us this morning. We hope and pray that you will make this a regular event in your life. We gather today as we do every week on the Lord's Day to remember the Death of Jesus. I Cor. 11 and to be reminded of His resurrection. If you are visiting with us, we hope you will come again. If you are searching for the truth and a Bible based church, you have come to the right place. We believe in the un-filtered Word of Jehovah and believe that it never fails. God is always true to His promises and commandments. May God help us to do the same. He left us a tremendous example that we should follow in His steps. Heaven awaits those who commit their lives to Christ and follow Him till death Rev. 2:10 We hope you will join us in worship tonight as we again gather in the name of the Lord to worship and glorify the only true Son of God.

WHY SHOULD WE SHOW REVERENCE TO GOD?

To often in today's world, God is less than revered. Many people continue to show disrespect and show a lack of reverence to the creator of the universe. God ought to be revered because men are children of God by creation (Genesis 1:26; 2:7; Zechariah 12:1). We are the offspring of God (Acts 17:28,29). He is the Father of spirits (Hebrews 12:9). For anyone to ignore this relationship, is to be irreverent. God ought to be revered because He is our spiritual Father, and we are His children. We become a part of His family by means of the new birth (John 3:3-5; 1 Peter 1:22,23). What a wonderful relationship we enjoy with the Father. How marvelous it is to be privileged to cry out, "Abba, Father" (Galatians 4:6). Whenever one fails to honor God in this relationship, he shows irreverence. God ought to be revered because He is our Law-giver, Ruler, and Master. We must recognize our position as His servants. No man has the right to question God's right to rule. To reject the law of Christ is to reject God (Luke 10:16; Matthew 10:40). Those who refuse to obey the Gospel are those who show no respect and reverence for God. DAN
