

Teen News

Thank you for being here today. School is almost over for the year and I know that you are excited about it. I hope you all have a great summer break! Thanks to those of you who have been coming to Bible Class. We have been learning a lot together! We will be leaving for Church Camp in 3 weeks. Several of the youth have signed up to go and I know you will have a good time again. On Sunday, June 9th, I would like to invite the parents of our youth to our Sunday School Class. We will have a lesson together and discuss camp stuff. Please make plans to attend class with us that Sunday! See you tonight!

MAKE SURE YOU DO RIGHT

Doing what is right means telling the truth. Each day we are confronted with a multitude of opportunities to lie or deceive. Sometimes we are tempted to deceive to avoid consequences of our actions or words. When confronted about whether we did or said a particular thing, we lie. A person once said that one is never more closely allied with the devil than when he lies or practices deception. "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." John 8:44. May God help us to always do right. DAN

ARE YOU LIVING A DISTINCTIVE LIFE?

When the children of Israel were entering the promised land, God commanded them to remain separated and distinct from the heathens around them. And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. Leviticus 20:26, And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this? Judges 2:2, Their request for a king was not based upon righteous reasons, but rather a desire to be like the nations around them Deut. 17:14-15, 1 Sam. 8:5-8, 19-20. Eventually they were expelled from the promised land because they had become as evil, pagan, and corrupt as the nations that preceded them in the land. Christians must be distinctive! The very nature of Christianity demands it. For one to attempt to live as a faithful Christian and at the same time attempt to be like everyone else in the world around them is impossible. Jesus said, No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Matthew 6:24 Those who try to live this way are committing spiritual adultery. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. James 4:4 Can a man be a faithful husband and an adulterer at the same time? Nor can one be a faithful child of God and friend to the world at the same time. We must be distinctive in our lives. May God help us to live above the world that others may see Jesus living in our lives. DAN

Children's Bible Will present a program after services tonight

From Dan's desk:

Mother's Day witnessed a number of visitors in the audience on Sunday morning at our services. We are grateful for all mothers and especially those in the congregation here. Children's Bible Hour met for the last time until the month of September. They will meet next Sunday evening and present a program in the church auditorium following the evening worship service. We appreciate all those who work with this program in any way. They always do a great job and it is reassuring to know that our young people are being taught the Bible. Parents ought to be so grateful for the efforts of those who work in Children's Bible Hour. Be sure to offer a word of encouragement to them. I know that they will appreciate it so much. Please remember that tomorrow night is the last time for "Monday Night For The Master" until September. We will meet at the usual time of 6:15 P.M. and then work between 7 and 8 P.M. Thanks to all of you who have come every time this year. There are always little jobs that need to be taken care of and without your help this could not be done. It is always good to give everybody a break during the summer months. The program is a good one and many things are accomplished when Christians work together in unison. Amos said, "How sweet it is when brethren work together in unity." Thanks for your comments about the lessons last Sunday. I am grateful for a congregation of people who love the Word of God and support the preaching of the Gospel. The beautiful sunshine over the last several days has really been a blessing after the rain that we have had in recent weeks. God knows what we have need of before we ask. Thanks for coming this morning and we hope to see you at the evening worship service and program to follow. DAN

"PEACE PERFECT PEACE"

The fruit of the Spirit is peace because the desire for peace does not originate within the flesh, but rather within the realm of spiritual things. If we look at the animal world around us, we do not find peace, but rather a constant struggle for survival. This same struggle would swallow us up were it not for a God-informed spirit's desire against it. God commanded the Israelites to offer peace offerings to show that peace does not come without sacrifice. True peace demands that we sacrifice something. Paul is calling Christians to sacrifice the flesh, die to self, and live for Christ (Galatians 2:20). When we do, we may have true peace both with God and with mankind. DAN
