Good morning and welcome to services! We had a great time at last Sunday night's Glow Stick Devo. We enjoyed singing together and playing glow stick capture the flag and a pretty competitive volleyball game. Some of you have finished your school year and others are headed back for one more week. We have a summer calendar on the way. At the time of this writing, we were still waiting on a date confirmation before printing the calendar, but as soon as we have that you can pick up a summer calendar with all activities listed for the summer months. We have plans for Bible study, camp, a mission trip, plenty of services opportunities, summer youth series and fellowship. I pray that each of you will grow spiritually and in friendship with one another! Please make plans to join us next Sunday night, May 29th, for a devotional and, best of all, it's not a school night! "GET OUT OF THE BOAT"

Peter walked on the water. (Matthew 14:22-33) Jesus invited him to do it. Jesus made it possible. What a sight! Peter first had to get out of the boat. You can't walk on water sitting in the boat. The boat is comfortable. A safe environment. A comfort zone. Familiar territory. Peter was a fisherman. He knew boats. He knew the danger of the sea. The boat was the logical place to be and to stay. Walking on water. Faith demands action. How would it feel to walk on water? You'll never know sitting in the boat. Jesus says, "Come." Peter went. He walked on water. Read the rest of the account. Peter stepped out in Faith. Much is done through great faith.

The Oil Find

Two old friends met one day after many years. One attended college, and now was very successful. The other had not attended college and never had much ambition. The successful one said, "How has everything been going with you?" "Well, one day I opened the Bible at random, and dropped my finger on a word, and it was oil. So, I invested in oil, and boy, did the oil wells gush. Then another day I dropped my finger on another word and it was gold. So, I invested in gold and those mines really produced. Now, I'm as rich as Rockefeller." The successful friend was so impressed that he rushed to his hotel, grabbed a Gideon Bible, flipped it open, and dropped his finger on a page.

He opened his eyes and his finger rested on the words, "Chapter Eleven." ADAPTED

The New Testament Church

The church is described in different ways in the New Testament. We have its definition and we can have its description.

It is described by titles, what we would call descriptive titles. The word church expresses the called out feature. But then the church is the kingdom. When Jesus said "upon this rock I will build my church," he added, "I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom." That means the keys of the kingdom fit the door of the church. And the use of the word kingdom is simply the government feature of the same institution. They are not different bodies. They are not different organizations. They are simply descriptive words of the same body of people. So the word church expresses the "called out" idea and the word kingdom expresses the government idea, that the church is a divine monarchy--that Jesus Christ is the Head of the church and the King of the kingdom; that we are members of the church and citizens of the kingdom; that the New Testament is the constitution of the church and the decrees of the kingdom; but they are one and the same thing . May God help us to continue preaching and teaching the Church of our Lord.

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER TOMORROW
NIGHT 6:15 P.M.

From Dan's desk:

We want to remind you that we will have Monday Night For The Master tomorrow night. We will meet at 6:15 P.M. for pizza, salad and deserts. We will work between 7-8 P.M. It will be an enjoyable and we encourage everyone to join us and participate. This will be out last time for Monday Night For The Master meeting until this coming September. There is always something to be done and several items are on the agenda. If you can be with us we would be so grateful. It is good to see each of you today and any visitors we may have in the audience. Your presence is encouraging. Everyone who went to Tyler last Thursday really enjoyed the good food at the Texas Road House. A lot of electrical work has been going on this last week in terms of repair. We are installing new carpet on the outside of the building as you enter the building. Finding leaks in the church auditorium when it rains has been taking place as well. Infrastructure is so important to any building and we are trying to do our best to take care of the facilities. New tires were placed on the church bus last week. Thanks to the Deacons and others who have been helping. Let's continue to reach out to those who have been ill. Some have been hospitalized but are improving. Others are going through tests and some having surgical procedures. We hope you will return for the worship service tonight. Our presence is a reflection of our love and devotion to Christ and His Church. May we all continue to work together to honor God.

HOW WOULD YOU MEASURE YOUR FAITH?

When Paul makes his treatise in his letter to the Romans, Habakkuk 2:4 is the centerpiece of his argument regarding justification by faith. The righteous shall live by faith. In the Roman letter Paul effectively demonstrates how no man or woman could ever be justified in the sight of God by their merits or their works since all have sinned (Romans 1:18-3:20). He demonstrates how Abraham received the promise through faith, and therefore those who inherit the promises are those who are children of Abraham by faith, sharing in the same trust in the One True God (Romans 4:1-25, 9:6-13). Paul quotes Habakkuk 2:4 again in the Galatian letter to demonstrate that no one has ever been justified before God on the basis of the Law of Moses (Galatians 3:11). Moses, David, and the prophets themselves lived by faith. Throughout time, therefore, those who belong to God and please Him are those who live by faith. (Hebrews 11:6). It is impossible for us to live without it and please God. Now more than ever before we need great faith. How would you measure yours? Selected
