

Teen News

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here! It's hard to believe we are at the end of August. Next week is promotion Sunday and we are looking forward to welcoming new students to our classes. Tonight we will be having a devotional and volleyball following evening worship. Our youth group will be facing off against the young adult class and there should be some great competition. Even if the highlight reel is a little slim, there should be plenty of fun moments! Be sure to pick up a September calendar from the youth bulletin board. We are looking forward to a fall filled with fun and fellowship! DOUG

“Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.”

II Corinthians 13:11

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. “It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts.” Thanks again for coming.

From Dan's desk:

Last Lord's Day was a thrilling day for the church family here. I had the honor and privilege of studying with Dale and Julie Waldon along with their son, Silas. Dale grew up in the congregation here. He is the son of Liz Missildine. JULIE was baptized at an early age and wanted to make sure she taken this step for the right reason. We rejoice with her on this decision and we welcome this family into our midst. Also on Sunday night ANN SPARKS responded asking for the prayers of the church. Ann has been battling depression for a long time and she appreciates the prayers of the faithful. We continue to pray for her and all that are experiencing similar conditions. I conducted the memorial service for my last living sibling yesterday in Marshall. My sister Jan Ridgeway was two years my senior. We grew up together and I have many fond memories of her through the years. Her love for God and family was without question. She will be missed. I was honored to address those who attended her memorial service yesterday in Marshall. Several came and I am grateful. Through the years I conducted the funerals of my four sisters and brother, along with their mates, aunts, uncles, nephews and many cousins. It is difficult to do this for family members but I am happy to know where they are now, in God's Paradise. Thank you for your prayers. See you tonight.

"Bring Glory To His Name"

"Emmanuel" means "God with us." Based on the promise of Hebrews 13:5, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee," we can say, "God is with us." The language of Matthew 1:21, which quotes from Isaiah 7:14 in the Old Testament, has a much stronger meaning. The language means that "this child born to Mary is God." This harmonizes with the statement of I Timothy 3:16, "God was manifest in the flesh..." Jesus, the Son, is also identified as God in Hebrews 1:8. "But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom." We can say based on plain Bible statements, "Jesus is God with us." The title "Lord" means "Master," the one in command over us. The Philippian jailer asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Paul's answer included the titles "Lord," "Christ," and the name "Jesus." "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:30-31). "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Jesus our Savior has the right family history, He was born at just the right time, in the right town, and he has the right name for his character and mission. He is worthy of our love and praise. Let us honor His name. DAN
