We will have a short meeting after church this morning about LTC in the chapel. I will be handing out registration forms and also finding out who can coach events this year. Please plan on sticking around for a few minutes, so I can get everyone the information. I would really like to get ahead of the game this year, so please stick around after church.

TODDLER & CHILDREN'S BIBLE HOUR RESUMES TONIGHT AT 6PM IN THE CHAPEL.

Little Johnny's father said, "Let me see your report card."

Johnny replied, "I don't have it."

"Why not?" His father asked.

"My friend just borrowed it. He wants to scare his parents."

"If you'll make the toast and pour the juice, sweetheart," said the newlywed bride, "breakfast will be ready."

"Good, what are we having for breakfast," said the new husband.

"Toast and juice," she replied.

REMINDERS

If you brought a dish to the recent funerals, the dishes have been placed in the small fellowship hall. Please check there and see if yours is there.

The Tuesday morning Ladies Bible class resumes this Tuesday from 9:30 to 10:30PM. Ladies, if you are not working, please consider joining us for this class.

What Will Matter

Ready or not, some day it will all come to an end. There will be no more sunrises, no days, no hours or minutes. All the things you collected, whether treasured or forgotten, will pass to someone else. Your wealth, fame and temporal power will shrivel to irrelevance. It will not matter what you owned or what you were owed. Your grudges, resentments, frustrations, and jealousies will finally disappear. So, too, your hopes, ambitions, plans, and to-do lists will all expire. The wins and losses that once seemed so important will fade away. It won't matter where you came from, or on what side of the tracks you lived. It won't matter whether you were beautiful or brilliant. Your gender, skin color, ethnicity will be irrelevant.

So what will matter?

How will the value of your days be measured? What will matter is not what you bought, but what you built; not what you got, but what you gave. What will matter is not your success, but your significance. What will matter is not what you learned, but what you taught. What will matter is every act of integrity, compassion, courage and sacrifice that enriched, empowered or encouraged others to emulate your example. What will matter is not your competence, but your character. What will matter is not how many people you knew, but how many will feel a lasting loss when you're gone. What will matter is not your memories, but the memories of those who loved you. What will matter is how long you will be remembered, by whom, and for what. Living a life that matters doesn't happen by accident. It's not a matter of circumstance, but of choice. Choose to live a life that matters.

CHILDREN'S BIBLE Resumes tonight at 6P.M. in The Chapel.

FROM DAN'S DESK..

All of the young children are reminded that Children's Bible Hour and Toddler's Bible Hour resumes tonight in the chapel. We have several new workers this year who are involved in this program and we are confident that it will be successful in every way. The Elders met with the Bible Hour workers (26) last Sunday afternoon for an organizational meeting. We are grateful for all who came. The theme this year is "The Life of Christ". Last Sunday morning MARTY NASH responded to the invitation of Christ asking for the prayers of the church here. We commend him and appreciate the tender heart of our friend. Our thanks to Jim Morris for being our speaker last Wednesday night in the auditorium. He did a good job and we appreciate him and all those who served on the summer schedule of speakers. The Tuesday morning ladies Bible class will also meet for the first time this Fall this coming Tuesday morning at 9:30 A.M. All the ladies are invited to attend this class and time of fellowship. The Ladies Visual Aid Brigade group will also meet following the class. Thanks for being here this morning. See you tonight.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES OR PUT THEM ON VIBRATE.

"Heaven-Bound"

An overwhelming majority of Americans continue to believe there is life after death and that heaven and hell exist, according to a new study. What's more, most think they are heaven-bound." So begins an article in a recent Tennessean ("Poll: Many American's believe they're heaven-bound," 10-25-03).

What is heaven? Where is it that so many people believe they are bound? "46% described it as a 'state of eternal existence in God's presence,' and... 30% said heaven is 'an actual place of rest and reward where souls go after death.'" The understanding that most people have of heaven seems to be fairly much in line with what the Bible tells us is true. What a great place it will be!

How do we get there? What must we do to be heaven-bound? The poll says that "born-again Christians... believe entry into heaven is solely based on confession of sins and faith in Jesus Christ." While the Bible speaks of being born again (John 3:3-7; 1 Peter 1:23), it also speaks of more that must be done than confession and faith. For us to "walk in newness of life" (undergo a new birth), we must also be "buried with Him through baptism" (Romans 6:4); and Scripture makes it clear that baptism is immersion in water (Acts 8:36-39). But this does not mean that our ticket has been punched and is irrevocable. We also must "be faithful until death" to receive "the crown of life" (Revelation 2:10).

Are you heaven-bound? Are you on the path that leads to eternal rest with God?
