

Thanks to all of you who attended the L.T.C. meeting last Sunday. I'm very excited for the youth that are going this year. We have 16 signed up so far and I know that everyone of them will do great! Leadership Training for Christ (L.T.C.) is a ministry to help kids in grades 3rd-12th serve God with their talents and develop new abilities. Every year, Crockett Road takes a group to Dallas over Easter weekend to participate with other Churches of Christ from around the region and show the things they have worked on from the previous months. Remember next Sunday the youth group will host the annual chili-cook off and cake auction. The chili-cook off is for bragging rights and the proceeds from the cake auction will be used for the youth group. Thanks for your support! BEN

"No One Goes To Hell On A Free Pass"

It has been said, "If you go to hell, you will pay your own way, but the only way to heaven is on a free pass!" Romans 6:23 says, "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." A lot of folks miss that last part - "through Jesus Christ." They think that if they are pretty good people, and they will surely get through the gate. But there are no pretty good people! "There is none righteous, no, not one." You may not kill or steal, but you curse and lie, you lust and covet, you are full of envy and hate, you are proud and untrustworthy. If none of these hit you, there are plenty more. All are guilty; all are condemned; all are deserving of eternal punishment. But there is one hope. The angels brought glad tidings, gospel, good news. The song they sang was about Jesus and that through Him and Him alone we may be spared. Jesus is still Saviour and Lord and our only hope. of going, Eph. 2:8-10. Do you have your pass? DAN

"WE CHOOSE OUR PATHWAY"

We all have to live with past choices. Did they include God? God created for us the blessing of choice. Satan created for us the curse of confusion. (Genesis 3)

None of us walk a pre-determined path to a destiny selected by other people. We have to choose our own pathways and roadways based on the value we anticipate at the destination. Is our future destination that which God promised? Have we allowed a stop-over to confuse and distract us? Are we trying to go back to some place we have been in the past? Review the history of your past choices about your life style, your language, your family, your mistakes, your successes, and your hopes. Cherish the choices that reflect God and His will. Forget the choices that omitted Him. Make decisions from this time forward from a perspective that includes God and His marvelous promises. Make your living history a history of loving choices.

Joshua 24:15 "And if it seem evil unto you to serve Jehovah, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah."

Amen

One Baptized into Christ L.T.C. will be here soon

From Dan's desk:

It was good to get back in town from enjoying a few days off. My thanks to Ben again for doing a good job and to Adam Harding for teaching the class last week. He did a good job according to all present. We rejoice with Paula Osborn in her response to the call of Christ to be baptized. Paula is the daughter of Ruth Cox and she has been bringing Ruth to worship. We are so happy for the both of them. We welcome Paula into our fellowship here at Crockett Rd. It has been great to see so many visitors at our worship services lately. Let's all continue to encourage others to be with us when possible. Last Sunday afternoon, Ben met with the young people and parents and other interested individuals who are going to L.T. C. this year in Dallas. The Bible quiz is over the book of Luke, which they are studying in their classes already. We have 17 young people who are participating in L.T.C. this year. This is the largest we have had in years. This is great. If you would like to help with this program and donate a little of your time, it would be greatly appreciated. The cold weather this last week reminded us that Winter is not over. Even though a number of trees and plants are beginning to emerge, they were set back a little by the cold weather. It won't be long however before the beautiful Dogwoods and other plants will Spring forth. It is hard to believe that in just a couple of weeks from today we will again go back on Daylight Savings time. The year continues to move forward. If you are visiting with us this morning, thank you for coming. See you tonight. DAN

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER

will be tomorrow night. We will be having Subway sandwiches, chips and dessert. Please make plans to be here and help with our work.

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

"Be Calm Inside"

All individuals who have learned to be content in what ever circumstances he finds himself, are those who know how to live at peace with themselves (Phil. 4:10-11). Such a person is not upset because he does not win every contest. Rather, he finds satisfaction in playing the game simply for the joy of playing, not focusing on victory alone. Such a person has recognized his sense of godly values so that the fulfillment of his desires brings inner satisfaction and peace of mind rather than unrest and remorse (1 Timothy 6:6; cf. 1 Timothy 4:7-8). True peace is as often realized in resisting passions and in satisfying them (Colossians 3:1-15). The danger lies not so much in what we want, as in wanting something simply to satisfy an unworthy desire (James 4:1-4; Psalm 66:18). The individual who is content with himself knows how to be quiet within. Let's think about it! DAN
