

Welcome! It's good to see everyone this morning! We will have a devotional tonight immediately following worship in the Activity Building. Come join us for the social distancing relays for students entering 5th grade through high school. Dinner will be provided so come join us for some fun. On Thursday evening, July 16th meet us at Lower Lake for fishing and fellowship at 6 pm. Have a great week!

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law." DOUG

SERMONS TODAY

This morning's sermon will focus on Lot from the Old Testament Gen. 19. There is a lot to learn from LOT. We will focus on Lot's Wife and her mistakes at the evening Worship hour. I will hopefully share with you some things you may have never considered about both that can prove helpful.

What's the definition of an accountant?

Someone who solves a financial problem you didn't know you had in a way you don't understand.

"LITTLE THINGS"

The story is told of a giant tree in Colorado, which fell to the ground after having stood majestically on a hill for over 400 years. A mere sapling when Columbus landed in San Salvador over the centuries, it had been struck by lightning 14 times, braved great wind storms, and even defied an earthquake. In the end, however, it was killed by some little beetles. Boring under the bark, they chewed away its mighty fibers until one day that lordly king of the forest came thundering down. So, too, apparently insignificant things often make substantial inroads into our spiritual lives, and if left unchecked may cause our downfall. The idle word spoken, the prayer time omitted, and the occasional fleshly pleasure indulgences — these things "spoil" the vineyard much more than we realize. If Satan gets an entering wedge on inconsistency, the leverage he then has is unstoppable. SELECTED

GOD COVERS US WITH WINGS OF LOVE

A story in National Geographic several years ago gives us a beautiful and penetrating picture of God's protective wings covering His children. After a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to assess the inferno's damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree. Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, the ranger reached out to knock the bird over with a stick. As he gently struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under their dead mother's wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and had gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise. She could have flown to safety, but she refused to abandon her babies. When the blaze reached her, the heat had scorched her small body, but the mother had remained steadfast because she had been willing to die, those under the cover of her wings had lived. The Psalmist beautifully illustrates God's protective love and care for each of us in Psalm 91:4 (NIV) when he says, "He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge." SELECTED

TWO BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST last weekend.
A lesson on LOT today.

From Dan's desk:

We rejoiced with two precious souls that were baptized into Christ last Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday morning RAELEIGH PLUMMER was baptized following our study together. We are so happy for her and her family on this decision. We are also so proud of her commitment to Christ at an early age. We commend Danial for making sure she is in the worship services each week. We also rejoiced with CLAYTON COLLINS on his decision to obey the gospel. I had studied earlier in the week with him, as we have been doing all along. It is always wonderful to see a family member baptized into Christ. I rejoiced at his birth physically some thirteen years ago and found myself with greater rejoicing over his immersion for the remission of sins. It was a pleasure to baptize him. We commend him as well. The attendance at the services resulted in increases. Bible class was down in number. We hope and pray that you will not be fearful, as we have made every effort to provide safety for those attending. We are grateful for those who continue to come and join us in Bible class and at the worship time as well. We keep praying and hoping that before long things will improve in our state and people will not be apprehensive about moving about. If you are visiting with us today we are so thankful for your presence and we hope you will want to come again. In the midst of all of our problems nationally, God is still blessing America, the Church and our lives also. We hope to see you tonight.

We need those of you who are acquainted with those on the prayer list to let us know when they are improving. If you know of someone who needs to be on the supplement prayer list or removed, please notify us in the church office.

The Elders

I AM BLESSED

I have food on my table,
roof over my head.

Dear God, I am asking
a home for homeless,
a job for jobless.

I am asking for a financial rain for everyone who's struggling to provide for their families. God please heal
every person who is sick.

Amen.
