

Good Morning! We are excited this morning to celebrate those who participated in Lads to Leaders this past year. Thanks for staying for our devotional last Sunday. We had a great time and enjoyed your company. We hope you can join us for burgers and swimming on this Monday night at our home. Have a great week!

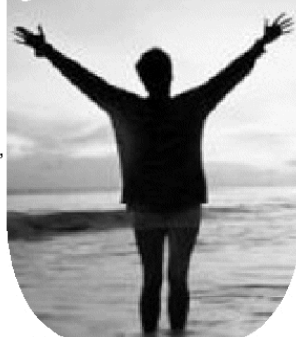

DOUG

“But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Romans 5:8 NKJV

START and END Each Day

With Jesus!

Doubts and fears arise early in the morning, and late at night.

Start each day by taking Jesus and His love with you.

Bring each day to a close by remembering His faithful promise,

“I Am With You Always!”

When doubts and fears do arise,
He will comfort you,
He will guide you,
He will keep you,
He will sustain you!

Even in the midst of turmoils,
you are not alone.

Jesus is with you --- ALWAYS!

So START and END Each Day With HIM!

Quotes to Live By:

“Learn from others’ mistakes. We don’t have time to make them ourselves.”

Conscience is a mother-in-law whose visit never ends.

The happiest people don’t necessarily have the best of everything; they just make the best of everything they have.

Life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.

Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down, but an encouraging word makes it glad.

“THE GOOD FIGHT”

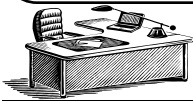

Some battles in life are fought and instantly won; passing tests, playing games, solving a puzzle in the newspaper, or winning at a sporting event. We preoccupy ourselves with these “battles” because they give us instantaneous gratification and bring us a measure of pleasure and self assurance.

There are other battles, however, that are ongoing and we will never, in this life, completely win until we conquer them in death. These battles are constant and daily efforts with which we must struggle on a regular basis. This is a hard thing for our society to accept who are accustomed to complex crimes being solved in a one hour TV program, sporting events ending in less than two hours. This kind of battle is only won in the continued fighting of it; it isn't a battle that is won, never to be fought again. It is a constant and daily effort.

We need to realize that living the Christian life is the same kind of battle. If we realize and accept this, I believe we will have a great weight lifted from our shoulders. The person who is constantly telling himself, “I've got to win today!” will soon find himself hopelessly burned out with trying to achieve this task. Why? Because living the Christian life is only something that is won while we continue the struggle. Paul told Timothy, “Fight the good fight of the faith?” (1 Timothy 6:12) and wage the good battle (1 Timothy 1:18). It was a battle that Paul was only expecting Timothy to win by continuing to fight it.

Let us recognize that today we fight the battle and that our victory is in our faith on a daily basis (1 John 5:4) and through this, we will overcome, not in this life, but, in the next. For today, however, if I have struggled, then I have won.

Attendance at Services moving upward.
LADS To LEADERS Awards to be given at end of service.

From Dan's desk:

The attendance at all the worship services and Bible classes are increasing each week. This is wonderful. It is always a joy to meet together in the House of God our Father. Many remain ill with the Coronavirus, but none in the congregation here. We are endeavoring to follow the guidelines set by the Governor's office and the Center For Disease Control. I know that it is an inconvenience to wear a mask, but we encourage you to do so as you are entering the building and then put it back on when you get up from the pew to leave. I notice that just about everybody had on masks last Lord's Day. Some have COPD and find it difficult to wear a mask. Such cases are understandable. We remind those who wait on the Lord's Table to wear a mask. We commend the men for doing this as it helps to prevent the disease we are told. Even though the Lads To Leaders convention did not take place in Dallas this year because of the COVID-19, many of the youth have been involved in projects at home in Palestine. Several awards will be given at the end of the worship service this morning. What a great way to show our encouragement to the youth and to Doug and Alison Rader who are doing a great job in spite of the pandemic. Thank you for commenting on the lessons last Sunday. The story of Lot is a sad one and one that could have been avoided. The lesson of Lot proves what can happen if we get caught up with the wrong crowd. The Apostle Paul was right when he stated by inspiration, "Evil companionship corrupts good manners (Morals). School is soon to begin. Most of the teachers in the congregation do not know if it will be virtual (internet) or in person classes. Let's be praying for the teachers and students who will return to increase their learning skills. That transition is always difficult each year after having been out all summer, but with the Pandemic it will be even more difficult. Thank you for coming today. We appreciate your attendance and God is honored and the congregation is encouraged. See you at 6 PM

NADAB & ABIHU

God has chosen to give us some valuable lessons from the Old Testament. "For whatever things were written before were written for our learning" (Romans 15:4). Nadab and Abihu were priests in the tabernacle of God under the Old Testament. One of their duties was to burn incense in the tabernacle at 9:00 AM and 3:00 PM each day. "Then Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered profane fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them. So fire went out from the Lord and devoured them, and they died before the Lord" (Leviticus 10:1-2). The KJV says "strange fire". It was "profane" or "strange fire" because that fire was not authorized. Nadab and Abihu were told in offering the incense they were to "take a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar" (Leviticus 16:12). Apparently they chose to ignore the Lord's instructions and do as they saw fit and get the fire elsewhere. Because their sin was doing that which the Lord "had not commanded them", they were struck dead for doing so. Doing that which the Lord "had not commanded" is prohibitive. SELECTED

WILL ROGERS ON GROWING OLD

First- Eventually you will reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.

Second- The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for.

Third- Some people try to turn back their odometers. Not me, I want people to know 'why I look this way.' I've traveled a long way, and some of the roads weren't paved.
