

Good morning!

I hope all is well with each of you. School has started back and I know this will be a good year for you all. My apologies for not being here last Sunday, we were very busy at the funeral home. Please keep all of those who have lost loved ones in your prayers. As much as I wanted and needed to be here, I know those families needed our help. I'm reminded each day how blessed we are to have our family and when we lose someone it's very difficult. Thanks to those who came to Bible Class this morning. See you all tonight. Please make plans to stay after church tonight for a DEVO.

BIBLICAL AUTHORITY

The basic and fundamental problem in churches and religious institutions today is a lack of respect for God's Biblical authority. In other words, people don't want to listen to what the Bible has to say on certain matters, they would rather use their own opinions. We are chosen by God to be builders in His kingdom (1 Pet. 2:5). We are builders and thus we must build on God's blueprint. This does not mean we can change God's blueprint to fit our lifestyles and opinions, instead we follow the blueprint that has already been laid and we continue the good work that has already been established in Christ's church. Instead of building on God's blueprint, many churches and Christians today add to God's blueprint. It's important to understand the difference. "Building on God's blueprint" is continuing with the teachings of the Chief Cornerstone (1 Pet. 2:6). It means that we are building upon the foundation that Jesus Christ and the Apostles built. It means that we are following the same blueprint that God gave them to continue building the kingdom of Christ. "Adding to God's blueprint" means that we have decided, on our own accord, that God's blueprint isn't good enough and so we will make changes so it can fit my lifestyle. Do you know what happens to a house that is built and measurements are off by just a few inches? It can collapse! We should beware of changing God's blueprint. God has given us everything we need. God has given us His words to live by. We should at all time in worship or otherwise respect the authority of Jesus Christ our Lord. Someday we will give account of our respect or lack of it when we stand before our maker. Do you respect Bible authority? Without it all else fails and our efforts are in vain. DAN

From Dan's desk:

Thanks to all of you for joining us in worship this morning. It is always great to enter the House of God. Today we will join together in worshipping our loving Father and His Son. We will study the Holy Scriptures given by inspiration of the Holy Spirit. You will be refreshed and invigorated to go out this week and honor our God. To all of our visitors this morning, we say thank you for coming. God is pleased with the presence of all of you who have come to acknowledge Him and commit your life to Him. Last Sunday morning, SHARI HUGHES made the decision to place membership with the congregation here. She comes to us from Arlington, Texas where she was a faithful member of the Lord's Church. We are happy about her decision to be a part of this loving congregation of God's people. We will be blessed by her presence and I know she will be blessed by you. The Lads to Leaders will be preparing a spaghetti supper with salad and garlic toast for those in attendance next Sunday night in the activity building following the evening service. I hope that all of you will want to stay and show support for these young people. Many of you will remember with great fondness the event last year and I know that they will do a great job this year as well. We appreciate all those who work with these young people as they are doing a fantastic job in leading our young men and women in the way of God. Thanks to all of you who came this morning for Promotion in Bible class. I hope that each of you who are not attending Bible class will start doing so. You will be blessed as a result. We hope to see you tonight at 6 P.M.
