

Teen News

Thanks to those who attended the DEVO last Sunday evening. We had a fun time in fellowship and a wonderful lesson. I hope you all have been reading your Bible like you should this week. If not I hope you will start this week! See you tonight.

BUNKO

Our monthly Bunko night will be October 18th at 5:00 PM. in the small fellowship hall. This is for all ladies in the congregation. Please bring you favorite snack and join us for a fun time.

GIVE ME THE BIBLE

The Give Me The Bible Program can be seen each Sunday morning on KLTv channel 7 in Tyler at 6 A.M. Those who have cable can see the program and you are encouraged to watch.

Anniversary Celebration

Next Sunday, October 21st, the children of Bert & Dee Ricard would like to invite you to help them celebrate their parents 60th Wedding Anniversary. It will take place from 4 to 6 P.M in the activity building. No gifts, please.

CHECK THE SOURCE

For some time a number of widows have been targeted by random phone calls from individuals making false claims that actually sound legitimate. The distressing nature of the call (which seems very real) and the pressure to draw some money out of the bank lest some horrible (yet, made-up) consequences follow, has left some unsuspecting Christians in a panic. May I offer just a few words of counsel? First, verify the source. Who are you talking to? How do you know (for certain) that the person on the phone is actually who they are claiming to be? Don't believe it, just because some voice on the phone says it. Second, hang up and go directly to the actual (and known) person. Whoever the person who called you claims to be, contact that person directly and ask him, "Did you say this? Is this true?" Don't take some unknown's word for it, just because it sounds legit. Go to the actual source. Third, do not give your personal information to anyone you do not know. If someone calls you and asks for your personal data, do not give it to them. Fourth, pay attention to the details. Listen carefully. Does the person on the phone really know what he's talking about, or is he making some things up, missing some details or changing the story? They might sound like they know what they're talking about, but they don't. Fifth, if necessary, contact the authorities. Sometimes simply hanging up is enough. But if matters go too far, do not be afraid to call those who can help you and seek their assistance. Friends, please be on guard. Please verify everything you are told. Don't accept something just because it sounds legit. This is true in all various situations, including when someone is telling you something about the Bible. Check the source. DAN

LOUISIANA-TEXAS R.V. Rally begins this week in Grapeland. TWO respond in Gospel Meeting. One responded last Sunday here.

From Dan's desk:

I am in Waco this morning preaching for the New Road Church of Christ. The Church there is having a special day in Waco and invited me to be the speaker. I was with them a few years ago in a Gospel Meeting. The meeting two weeks ago in Hallsville resulted in two responses to the invitation. One was baptized and one restored and asked for prayer. Steve Handley will be speaking this morning here and I will return for the evening service tonight. Steve is a prison chaplain and we support him in his good work. He will give an updated report about the work being done this morning in the combined adult and teen Bible classes in the church auditorium and then he will present the lesson this morning. We are grateful to Steve for his energy and efforts in teaching those men the gospel of Jesus Christ. We continue to pray for his work. The R.V. Rally is being held this week in Grapeland. Those who have been before know what a wonderful experience it is to be with other Christians and enjoy the fellowship. On Friday night of this week, we will be taking the church bus to Grapeland for the events. They will have their annual "fish fry" that evening and then the patriotic program to follow. There will be great singing, good food and fellowship. Special presentations will be made to all veterans in attendance. You can go on the bus or if you want to take a car and follow you are encouraged to do so. It will be an event you will not forget soon. If you plan to go, please sign the list on the bulletin board, so adequate preparation can be made. I will return from Waco this afternoon and will look forward to being with you tonight. We were happy about CINDY PACE placing membership last Sunday. We welcome her into the congregation here. She was baptized here a number of years ago. DAN

"LADS TO LEADERS"

SPECIAL PROGRAM: Next Saturday morning at 10 A.M. the "LADS TO LEADERS" are invited to the home of R.D. and Daphne Prince to learn about making wood crafts. Wood crafts will be available for children to paint and take home. Please sign the list on the bulletin board if you would like to participate. If you would like to teach the young children about a particular skill or hobby, including sewing, crafting, scrapbooking, photography, etc. Please see the Rader's, Satterwhite's or Krumnow's.

ARE YOU DIFFERENT?

Christians should be distinctive, as individual congregations of the body of Christ should be distinctive from the denominations and religious sects that do not teach the truth. Multitudes of religious bodies claim to be following Christ and the Bible, yet their beliefs and practices are not authorized by the Bible. The Lord's church is singular! There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; (Ephesians 4:4 KJV) And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. (Colossians 1:18 KJV) Many congregations have willingly surrendered their distinctiveness. Pulpits offer milk-toast and watered-down sermons. Worship practices have become little more than venues of entertainment. Christians must be distinctive! The very nature of Christianity demands it. For one to attempt to live as a faithful Christian and at the same time attempt to be like everyone else in the world around them is impossible. Jesus said, No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Matthew 6:24 Let's be different.
