Good morning. I hope you all had a good week. I would like to thank Bill Chandler and Lorelee Reeder for hosting the devo last Sunday night, I just wish we would have had a better turn out because it was a lot of fun. Tonight the devo will be at the home of Ben and Keri Rhone and I want to encourage everyone to attend. These people that host the devo's go through a lot of trouble and we owe it to them to make every effort to attend. See you all tonight. BLAKE

WHAT'S COOKING?

You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.

They Shall Be Satisfied

Joel Stephen Williams

Have you ever noticed how a dog is always hungry? Even if we fed our dogs only an hour ago, they are ready for more food if we will offer it. But there is a limit beyond which a dog is satisfied. My father used to have a rather large dog which stayed in our back yard. On this dog's birthday, daddy bought several cans of dog food. The first can was inhaled in about five seconds. The second can was offered to the dog about five minutes later. It disappeared quite rapidly. Five minutes later the third can was opened. It took a little longer, but it was eaten. The fourth can was eaten rather slowly. Finally, when my father opened the fifth can and called, the dog simply laid in the back yard and wagged his tail. He did not bother to try to eat any more. He was satisfied.

Jesus said: "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied" (Mt. 5:6). Hunger and thirst are two of the strongest drives known to mankind. What you have an appetite for will be the determining factor deciding with what you will be filled. If you are extremely thirsty, you will probably fill yourself with water. If you have an overpowering desire for chocolate candy, you will probably eat some.

It is significant that Jesus uses hunger and thirst to illustrate how much we ought to strive for righteousness. If you really want to be a righteous person who obeys God and lives a life of godliness and purity, that will be the result. You will be able to overcome temptation. You will not be distracted by inferior goals. If you want your life filled with spiritual goodness, God will not hold back what you need. Just as my father was able to give his dog all the food he could want, God can satisfy our spiritual longing. God is able. The only question is: "Do we long for God?" (Ps. 42:1-2).

One places membership R.V. Rally begins next week.

From Dan's desk:

Several visitors were present last Sunday. It is always great to see new faces among us. We also started a new visitors program. We have started giving out little "gift bags" that contain a biblical tract, letter from the Elders, a detailed list of the activities of the church here and a copy of a c.d. entitled "The Importance of the Church" along with a pen, etc. We have placed visitors cards with a visitor label in the pews for our visitors that will hopefully identify those who are visiting among us and give us an opportunity to greet them. We hope that each of you will take note of those wearing the name labels and make them feel welcome to our congregation. We were happy last Sunday when KATHY JOHNSON placed membership with us. Kathy comes to us from the Frankston Church of Christ and has been coming for some time now, and has made her decision to work and labor with the church here. We are so thankful to have her with us. The youth went to the home of Lorelee Reeder and Bill Chandler last Sunday night. We appreciate them opening their home for the young people for a meal and fellowship. Next Sunday we will have numerous guest visiting with us from the Christian R.V. Rally at Salmon Lake Park. They will be coming from several different states as well as from the State of Texas. Ray Franks who coordinates the Rally will be speaking during the Bible Class time. We will look forward to hearing him. We will be taking the church bus to the rally on Friday night for the Meal and fellowship. It will be a great evening if you would like to go along, please sign the list in the foyer. We need to know how many will be coming. This is the 14th annual rally and if you saw the article in the local paper, you will take note of a lot of activities planed for the week beginning on Wednesday night. Any of you are invited to attend and there is no cost involved. See me for details. Thanks for being present this morning.
