

Good morning and thanks for being here today! I hope you all had a great week and are enjoying this cooler weather. I know I am!! We have several things going on this month. Please make plans to attend as much as you can. LTC will be coming up soon so be thinking about what you want to participate in this year. We will have a meeting in the next couple of weeks. If any adults want to help coach this year let me know. I hope each of you has a blessed week. See you all tonight. BEN

My Next Twelve Hours

Just for today I will. try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for 12 hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for today I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Abraham Lincoln said - that "Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

Just for today I will try to strengthen my mind. I will study. I will learn something useful. I will not be a mental loafer. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration. - Author Unknown

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.

Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse,
that you must not quit.

Don't Quit

Happy and Sad

An ancient fable tells of three merchants crossing the Arabian Desert. Traveling in darkness to avoid the intense heat one starless night, they were passing over a dry creek bed when a voice from the blackness commanded them to halt. They were then ordered to stoop, pick up pebbles from the creek bed, and put them in their pockets. After obeying the strange command, they were told to leave that place, camping nowhere near.

The mysterious voice then told them that in the morning they would be both happy and sad. Shaken and confused, and obeying the mysterious intruder, they traveled through the night. When morning came, the men anxiously looked into their pockets, and rather than finding the pebbles as expected, there were precious jewels.

They, indeed, were happy and sad. They were happy they had picked up the jewels, but sad because while they had the opportunity they had not picked up many more.

Louisiana-Texas R.V. Rally Auditorium Re-construction

From Dan's desk:

We welcome each of you today. We are glad you are here. We have been blessed recently with numerous people either being baptized into Christ or placing membership with us. This is great. This week promises to be a wonderful week. The Louisiana-Texas R.V. Rally begins this Wednesday at Salmon Lake Park. There will be many who come from all over Texas and other states to be with us next Lord's Day. The Rally is always an exciting time for our congregation, because several from our congregation are involved in the activities. There is a poster placed on the bulletin board detailing the time and subject matter to be discussed at the Rally this year. RAY FRANKS who directs the Rally will be speaking next Sunday morning to the combined Adult Bible Classes in the auditorium. We hope you can be present. Following our worship service that morning, we will be having a luncheon in the activity building. Make sure that you stay for the luncheon, as we will have many visitors staying. It is a great opportunity to be together in an additional time of fellowship. We are in the process of remodeling the front of the auditorium in the pulpit area. We have been wanting to do this for a long time and someone donated money to begin this project. It will really look nice when it is completed. This project should take about two weeks. Thanks to those of you who went to Lufkin last Tuesday evening to attend the Lectureship at the Angelina Church of Christ in Lufkin. Paul was excited about seeing all of you who were in attendance. We will look forward to seeing you tonight at the evening service.
