DON'T WORRY

Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?
 - MATTHEW 6:26-27 NIV

WE WILL NEVER FORGET

GOD BLESS AMERICA

ONE IS BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST

From Dan's desk:

We were made happy last week when WAVERLY ELLERBEE made the decision to obey the Gospel of Christ. I had the opportunity to study with her about the Lord and following our study, she obeyed the Gospel of our Lord. We are happy for her and rejoice upon this decision. I hope you will get to know her. She is a wonderful person. Last Monday night was the last session of "Monday Night For The Master" until the month of September. A big thank you to all who attended last Monday. Much was accomplished and we are always grateful for those who give so much of themselves to the work of the church. There are those who you can always count on to be there. God will bless your efforts and your love for Him and the church. Today is Memorial Day and a time for us to remember those who gave their lives in the service of our country. It is also a time for us to reflect on our loved ones who have gone before. We all have loved ones that have meant so much to us who have already gone to meet the Lord. We remember them with great fondness. Through the years so many have made a tremendous impression on my life and I will forever be eternally grateful. I hope today you will not only remember our war dead, but those great Soldiers of the Cross who labored and gave so much to the ongoing of God's Kingdom here and to the proclamation of the Gospel of Christ. I hope that each of us are also reminded of our on influence. What kind of example are we leaving behind for others to follow. How will we be remembered? Thanks for being here this morning. We hope and trust that you will be here tonight as we meet for worship. DAN

Doing Your Best

Many years ago in a textile factory there was a sign on the wall which read: "If your threads get tangled, send for the foreman." One woman who was fairly new was a diligent worker, but her threads got tangled one day. She tried to disentangle them, but her efforts only made matters worse. Finally she gave up and called the foreman. He came and looked for a few moments and then asked: "You have been trying to untangle them yourself, haven't you?" "Yes," she replied. "Why didn't you send for me, according to the instruction?" She shrugged her shoulders and said: "I did my best." With much tact, yet, with great insight, he quietly said: "Remember that doing your best is sending for me." How often in life have we tried to straighten out our own messes, only to make things worse, and certainly not to solve things? We think that a little more human effort, a bit more human wisdom, and a touch of human ingenuity are the solution. But mankind in general and individuals in particular tend to make the same mistakes over and over again. Bad habits remain in place. Errors are repeated. We may even excuse our conduct by saying: "I did my best." Then God gently, yet firmly, reminds us: "Doing your best is calling for me." Paul did the best that he could do, but it was not good enough. He mused: "I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate...I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do...Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?" (Rom. 7:15-24). But Paul had learned that to call on the name of Jesus was the best he could do and the solution to his problem (Rom. 10:9-13).
